SecureTrust Named Best Payment Card Industry Compliance Provider

Card Not Present Awards SecureTrust for Leadership in PCI Compliance

CHICAGO -- May 28, 2020 -- SecureTrust, a division of Trustwave, today announced it has been recognized as Best PCI Compliance Provider at the 2020 CNP Summit™ which was held virtually this year. The award was given by Card Not Present® (CNP) during the 2020 CNP Awards, the industry's only awards competition honoring the companies, programs and solutions that have distinguished themselves in the card not present space throughout the year.

"Businesses of all kinds are being forced to adapt and innovate in this unprecedented year," said D.J. Murphy, editor-in-chief of Card Not Present. "Merchants in the e-commerce fraud and payments community, facing completely new online shopping and fraud patterns, are working hand-in-hand with service providers to respond. We've done that as well. This year, we're fortunate to be able to unveil the CNP Awards—the standard by which companies in this industry are recognized and judged—virtually for the first time. We congratulate all the winners and hope to see them and the rest of our community in person next year."

At the CNP Summit, SecureTrust unveiled SecureTrust™ PCI Manager, a powerful cloud-based platform delivering Payment Card Industry (PCI) compliance validation and enhanced risk mitigation for acquiring banks and merchant service providers.

 "We're honored to be recognized by Card Not Present as the leader in providing PCI compliance solutions," said Michael Petitti, president at SecureTrust. "This is truly a team achievement and further validates the choice that millions of business across the world have made -- that SecureTrust PCI compliance solutions are among the most innovative and comprehensive in the market."
